

filled to fullness [Ephesians 3.14-21]

How can we pray? Prayerfulness, intimate, dependent conversation with God is one of the highest priorities of a growing disciple of Jesus. What better way to learn how to pray than to look at the prayers that others have prayed to use as examples of how to pray and reminders of what matters most?

for this reason . . . vv14-15

glory in the church

How will you embrace and embody this prayer, this week?

Where are your roots and foundations?

moving forward:

What aspects of this prayer are most meaningful to you?

How will what you have learned help you this week?

This week: pray this prayer, specifically for at least one person every day.

Who will you share these thoughts with, this week?

(Cut the verse out and post it somewhere to remind you to pray this prayer)

Memorize this-

Father, out of Your honorable and glorious riches, strengthen Your people. Fill their souls with the power of Your Spirit so that through faith the Anointed One will reside in their hearts. May love be the rich soil where their lives take root. May it be the bedrock where their lives are founded so that together with all of Your people they will have the power to understand that the love of the Anointed is infinitely long, wide, high, and deep, surpassing everything anyone previously experienced. God, may Your fullness flood through their entire beings. Now to the God who can do so many awe-inspiring things, immeasurable things, things greater than we ever could ask or imagine through the power at work in us, to Him be all glory in the church and in Jesus the Anointed from this generation to the next, forever and ever. Amen.
